World Health Organization

COMPANY CULTURE TOP 10

1. Commit to making a positive impact with our initiatives

2. Collaborate and partner with other partnerships, organizations, and government agencies.

3. Focus on diversity and inclusion to ensure that everyone on this planet is involved.

4. Use scientifically based evidence-based decision-making to better solidify our health policies.

5. Create a culture of transparency to keep WHO accountable for our actions.

6. Emphasize values for humanitarian crises with ethical decision-making.

7. Reducing disparities between countries regardless of location or status to provide equity.

8. Adapt to evolving health challenges and issues with learning new data.

9. Foster a positive work environment for our professionals and practicitioners

10. Strive to facilitate an organized internal structure.