Module 1: Overview of Course

Assessment Title	Course Learning Objective	Description	Explain How and Why You Choose
Discussion: Introduction	CO1:	Discussion Question: As a way of introducing yourselves to the instructor and your peers, please post the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Your name and a description of your current position (If not employed, what are your expectations when you complete your program?)</li><li>• How do you see yourself applying knowledge from this course?</li><li>• Post a photo of yourself (self-portrait, family, or action photo)</li></ul> Question: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>•</li></ul>	Requesting participants to introduce themselves and share their current roles or expectations contributes to creating a sense of community within the course. Such introductions enable both students and the instructor to gain insights into each other's backgrounds, fostering a more interactive and supportive educational atmosphere. These initial interactions can uncover a variety of backgrounds and interests, promoting richer collaborative learning experiences. You write over here why you chose this discussion prompt. Discussions are written on Wednesdays, so ½ way through the Unit. 2 responses are due on Sundays. Original post = 2 hours to write, should include a professional reference as support. Responses should take about 1 hour.
